

First aid policy

Banbury Star Cyclists' Club takes the safety and welfare of our members seriously. The club has invested in making sure that its ride leaders, and some Committee have undertaken Basic First Aid Training and are equipped with small First Aid packs should there be an accident whilst out cycling with the club. Please respect the responsibility for others safety that these members have accepted and support them should they be called upon to provide assistance to others.

